EXPOSURE TO SECONDHAND SMOKE IN CHILDREN

can cause more frequent and severe asthma attacks can cause respiratory symptoms like coughing, sneezing and shortness of breath increases risk of bronchitis and pneumonia

Breathing even small amounts can be dangerous.

